

#IStand 2017 campaign brings together the expertise of Ashiana and Sheffield IDVAS to provide two free multi-agency workshops
Honour Based Violence : 2nd March
Human Trafficking : 3rd March
1pm at Knowle House, S2 3QE

For more information contact Ashiana Training and Development team: info@ashianasheffield.org
To book, fill in the attached booking form.

#IStand

#IStand is a month of action organised by Ashiana to take a stand to support BAMER women whose lives have been affected by violence, abuse and exploitation. As part of this month, Ashiana and Sheffield IDVAS have organised two multi-agency workshops.

Honour Based Violence Workshop - 2nd March

- Recognising the signs of HBV and how forced marriage links into this form of abuse.
- An overview of the legislation and at both criminal and civil.
- An overview of the reporting procedures and how to help potential victims.

Trafficking Workshop - 3rd March

- What human trafficking is and its various types.
- Why human trafficking happens.
- Understanding the impacts of human trafficking.
- Understand the indicators and how to report cases.
- An overview of the legislation, both criminal and civil procedures.

To discover more about the #IStand campaign and our month of events, visit our Facebook and Twitter pages
facebook.com/AshianaSheffield twitter.com/AshianaShef

Ashiana uses it's 30 years of experience and expertise to help organisations support Black, Asian, Minority Ethnic and Refugee (BAMER) women. We offer training, speak at conferences and work with organisations to ensure they are best placed to work with women and girls of all cultures and backgrounds.

To discuss how Ashiana can best help you support BAMER women, contact us:

0114 255 5740

info@ashianasheffield.org

www.ashianasheffield.org

